INTRO.

VOICE

That Bon-nie Land of Free-dom, is where we call our home, We leave our home and fire-side to
When we comesail-ing home-ward, with vic-t'ry we'll be crowned, Tho' man-y may be left there be -

The vocal melody is in 2/4 time, starting on a middle C. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

sail a-cross the foam; We'll meet a foe that's wor-thy, yes, wor-thy of our steel, But we're neath an un-marked mound; The bat-tle cry and bu-gle, may slow-ly fade a-way, And

The vocal melody continues with the same rhythm. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a steady bass line.

sail-ing forth to vic-t'ry with Jus-tice at the wheel. And with the Yan-kee war-cry, The com-rades pass to judg-ment while oth-ers turn to gray. And yet our youth-ful spir-its will

The vocal melody concludes the phrase. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line in the final measures.

CHORUS

Then three cheers for good old A - mer - i - ca, that bon-nie land of ours, May her col - ors wave and pro - claim her place in the world of na - tions' pow'rs; The good old Stars and Stripes shall wave, o'er pa - triots tried and true, And we'll tip our hats to the flag we love and to her sol-diers, too. Then three too.
